

Houston's number # 1 radio station, Estereo Latino 102.9 FM is the lowest of the low. Estereo Latino is owned by Univison Radio. "Raul Brindis" which airs from 7:00 in the morning to 12:00 in the afternoon is a top-rated morning show in spanish where they use bad word after bad word. The main subjet of the show is always related to sexual conducts. Every single day the hosts use words like "cabron, pendejo, hijo de la chingada, chingado, partes sexuales" which is equivalent to asshole, fuck, fucked, fucker, son of a bitch, sexual parts, just to name a few. Because the show airs in spanish, the majority of the american people do not understand the content of the show. My concern is that 35% of Houston's population are hispanics. Someone at the Federal Communications Commission should pay attention to this kind of shows. Children all over Houston are listening this show every morning on their way to school. Please do something regarding this important and delicate matter. Thank you!